

We need to keep our media local. Large corporations will not serve the public.